CSL – Santa Monica / Los Angeles

The English language school at the perfect location...

We are happy to welcome you to Santa Monica where you will discover some of Southern California's finest attractions and entertainment. With over 3.5 miles (5.6 km) of California's best beaches and 340 days of sunshine per year it is a prime location for an English study holiday. Surrounded by the city of Los Angeles, home to some of the world's top universities and high tech companies, Santa Monica offers the ideal setting for language students that wish to combine their course work with academic preparation, professional language training or simply improve their English skills while enjoying the unlimited attractions of surrounding Los Angeles.

The California School of Languages (CSL) is located in downtown Santa Monica just three blocks (300m) from the beach and half a block from the famous Third Street Promenade. You can walk to the beach in just a couple of minutes or stroll down on Third Street discovering street artists performing and having a café at one of the many outdoor terraces.

The school is on the top floor of a three-story office building and has plenty of natural light with windows looking over Wilshire Blvd. and downtown Santa Monica. Our premises are new and modern. All of our classrooms are air-conditioned and have high speed internet access as well as free wireless internet access. You can relax in our student lounge area and enjoy daily newspapers, complimentary fresh espresso coffee or tea.
